

ASTROLOGY REPORT

P H Afagbegee's Ascendant is 16 degrees of Aquarius that show his decanate is Gemini the reason for his tall structure. Looking at the chart you will see Venus, Uranus and Moon's north node are in conjunction in the Ascendant of the Personality, abundant of love but Venus is in conflict with Neptune and Uranus is quincunx to Saturn the planet of discipline. He was a man of many sides and ready to give a hand whenever opportunity calls. He was a disciplinarian and very progressive, when it comes to his public image he was a man described as "self-made man". He built his own career from the scratch and lived with it. He was a man with strong will power and if he says he will do this he will, he used his mind a lot that is using meditation whenever he has to do anything serious. His Moon is in Scorpio and that confirms his strong willed personality. His inclination to spirituality is an immense, he spent more time studying Mysticism and Metaphysics. In short he was a spiritual giant who was a protector of men, it was a real blessing to come close to him all those who knew him had a touch of his magnetic personality. He was imbued with universal laws of nature, with wide insight into the greater mysteries. A noble character who was ready to give answer to your problems. We thank God that a man of his caliber walked on the surface of the Earth and made life a little better than he met.
